I appreciate that Amber focused on the necessity of self responsibility to recognize these biases that we bring into our everyday lives, both personal and professional. The objective isn't perfection but rather to acknowledge our biases when they creep up, make amends when these biases affect others, and do our best to change our thoughts and behaviors.

ANY COMMENTS, OR OTHER INFORMATION YOU WOULD LIKE TO SHARE?

She created an open environment where diversity and the topics relating to such can be freely talked about without fear of judgement. I believe this is necessary in order to tackle these difficult issues.

GIVE AN EXAMPLE OF ONE THING, IF ANY, YOU WILL DO
DIFFERENT BECAUSE OF THIS TRAINING.

I am more aware of the biases that I perpetuate and realized how this could have a negative impact on those around me. I have become more self aware.

ANY ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

AMAZING PRESENTER! I have never enjoyed talking about this topic so much!!! I feel like everyone should take this workshop. I would honestly be interested in a longer session with her.

HOW CLEAR ARE YOU ON THE TAKEAWAYS FROM THE SESSION?
